

Officials Insurance FAQ

Note:

All Sport Official- USSSA events only

All Association Official- USSSA and Non-USSSA events

USSSA officials' "All Sport" registration automatically includes general liability and accident medical insurance for officials during USSSA sanctioned activities.

Requirements for automatic officials coverage include:

1. The official must be registered with USSSA.
2. Teams participating must be registered with USSSA.
3. Tournaments must be USSSA sanctioned.

USSSA officials' "All Association" registration automatically includes general liability and accident medical insurance for officials during non-USSSA sanctioned activities.

Requirements for automatic officials coverage include:

1. The official must be registered with USSSA.
2. Teams participating do not need to be USSSA teams.
3. Tournaments do not need to be USSSA.

When officiating a USSSA activity, what insurance is provided for me?

For USSSA registered officials only, the following coverages are provided:

Secondary accident medical insurance with a $20,000 limit with a $500 Deductible.

General liability insurance with a $2,000,000 per occurrence, no aggregate limit. Coverage is provided for USSSA registered officials only.

Can I purchase insurance to cover non-USSSA officiating?

Yes. Available only to USSSA registered officials, coverage can be purchased to cover non-USSSA officiating, only in the sports that USSSA covers, (Fastpitch Slowpitch, Baseball, Basketball, Lacrosse, Soccer, Volleyball and Wrestling).

When you register as an official register as ALL Association and you will be covered for non-USSSA events. If you have already registered as an All Sport official you can purchase the extra coverage for $25/year. Contact CT USSSA for more information.

Why would I need additional insurance if I already have NASO, Federation or other insurance?

NASO no longer has a medical insurance program and Federation has no medical and only $1,000,000 of liability coverage. For a small investment you have coverage that you can count on to protect you while you officiate!

Am I covered while officiating a preseason or practice game?

Yes, but only for an activity involving USSSA registered teams.

Most of my officiating is for the USSSA, but sometimes I have an unsanctioned tournament.

Does my insurance cover these unsanctioned tournaments?

No. USSSA officials' insurance covers USSSA sanctioned activities only. (see next section – officials insurance for non- USSSA activities.)

I have my own medical insurance and am injured while officiating. Do I have to file the claim with my insurance carrier?

Yes. The officials' accident medical coverage is secondary to any other insurance in force.

I was injured officiating at a USSSA event. What procedure should I follow?

First, turn your claim in to your primary insurer, if you have primary insurance.

Second, call Filice insurance agency, at 1-877-345-4309 for a claim form. Claim forms will be sent out only to the injured official after verifying registration at national headquarters. Do not hold your claim form! File it immediately and forward all bills to the claims administrator upon receipt.

If I am sued for my actions during a USSSA activity, what should I do?

If you are sued or threatened to be sued in writing, immediately send the information to Filice insurance agency, 3736 MT. Diablo BLVD, Suite 301, Lafayette, ca 94549. Include your full name, address, daytime telephone number, and names and addresses of any witnesses.

Am I covered if injured in an automobile accident going to or from an officiating assignment?

No. Travel coverage is not included.

My primary insurance has a $500 deductible. Will the officials' coverage pay this deductible?

Yes. Coverage is provided to pay your deductible and co-insurance payment, up to the usual and customary charge.

Are my eyeglasses or contact lenses covered?

No. Personal property is not covered.

Is chiropractic care covered for official injuries?

Yes. Subject to the policy limits.

I was injured while officiating a USSSA game. I want to wait until the end of the season for treatment. Is this covered?

No. Treatment must begin within 30 days of the date of the injury, and be concluded within 2 years of the injury date.

I suffered a heat stroke while officiating a USSSA tournament. Does our officials medical insurance cover this?

No. Heat stroke, heart attack, dehydration, etc. are illnesses. The officials' policy Covers accident medical injuries only, not illness or disease.
